Liturgy and Life

Jesus tells the disciples to feed the crowd, and the loaves and fishes miraculously multiply. The Eucharist is a miracle we celebrate every day. It is a model for social justice. There is no distinction between the wealthy or the poor, the learned or the simple, the language one speaks, or the color of one's skin. Dorothy Day once pointed out that the rich and the poor knelt side by side. Together we are transformed into the Body of Christ. Similarly, the Eucharist is never about a me -and -Jesus moment. We receive the Body and Blood of Christ, and, as we are fed, we are strengthened to go out into the world and to do the work of God.
